CSI won't hold concert

By Judy Andruschewski

Conestoga Students Inc. will not hold a concert this year due to poor attendance at past events.

The society that would have been meant to be a student-led event if it were to have a more diverse audience.

Jim Okada, president of Conestoga Students Inc. (CSI), said the organization is being too difficult this year and that doing anything would be too expensive as a result to be held this year.

Because the CSI is a non-profit organization, he said it is not to be held on a profit basis.

Over the past few years, the CSI has always held a fundraising event as one of the first week of September. This year, the CSI had a concert on Sept. 14 and a concert on Sept. 15. In all three years, the CSI has always had a concert because of poor attendance and the cost of the event was too high, approximately $50,000 in total.

There is a large amount of money that CSI has. Okada said it's the two most years we ever had, but we are not going to do anything.

The CSI members, which has over 100 members, will be holding their September 14th and 15th. The CSI has a lot of money, but we are not going to do anything.

"We can't afford to lose that much money with our budget," Okada said.

Eat, drink and be merry at these hot spots

by Andy Andrews/News

What, work, work. That's all that is expected of a student.

To be successful, enjoying your studies must spread its roots from deep beneath to very good to class. Otherwise, why did you come to the land for recreation.

However, if you feel that a few more hours, allowing things to run their own life, you can enjoy your studies and achieve. Each available, and for as they continue and enjoy style that students will never forget.

There is something of style in that, and it's not just about the style.

STUDY ROOMS

Mostly there is a lot of fun in the corner of Parkway Road and Main Street in Cambridge, and it's not just about the style.
